RESIDENTS AROUSED.

Property Owners May File Injunction Suit Against Sidewalk Contractor.

It is very probable that several of the property owners on Twelfth East ond South streets will file an injunction suit against the city and the sidewalk contractor to enjoin the laying of a sidewalk at the grade established by the city engineer. If the walk is laid at the grade proposed the property of an umber of the residents on that street will be way below the sidewalk and they claim that it will be greatly damaged when it is not necessary to establish such a grade. A complaint was made by the property owners on the corner of Second South and Twelfth East streets and the grade was modified to suit them hence the other property owners are trying to select outers.

LAUNDRY SAYS

Presents Its View of Strike Par- | Coming State Fair. Largest in ticipated in by "Mangle" Girls.

"SYMPATHIZERS" ARE BACK.

New Hands, Says Manager, Wanted Raise Before They Had Learned The A. B. C.s of Laundering.

A strike bug flew into the American Linen Supply company's laundering department yesterday, and when it flew out, it was followed by 25 girls, who marched down the street shouting and singing. The girls had asked for a raise of $1 per week in their wages-averaging $4.50-and when this was refused by the management, they was refused by the management, they quit. They are to organize themselves into a union and thus get the encouragement and aid of the local allied labor bodies. But in face of a statement made this morning by Manager Wm. R. Pollock, this step seems unnecessary, as the girls have rendered themselves jobless. The strikers asserted that they were forced to work from nine to twelve hours a day, and these hours were too long and the work too tiresome for $4.50 a week.

MANAGER POLLOCK TALKS.

MANAGER POLLOCK TALKS. Manager Pollick of the laundry was solding hown an end at the "shaker" his morning. He was delighted at being offered an opportunity to lay be company's view of the strike came upon us suddenly yesterday morning. Some strange man was in here early in Some strange man was in here early in the morning and shortly after a num-ber of girls took their hats and coats and walked out without giving us the slightest notice of their intentions," he said. "At noon others went out, Our service was, of course, badly crippled and as the girls sang as they crippled, and as the girls sang as they marched away, large crowds gathered. Investigation led to the discovery that the girls went out because they considered their wages too small—but I want to explain the situation fairly and impartially. The girls who went out, or the greater portion of them, are apprentices. Some of them have been working but a few days, and, naturally, they were not paid as much as older hands. They were paid $4.50; other girls are being paid in correspondence to their ability, coat ironers, getting from $5 to $10."

NEW GIRLS APPEARING.

"The new hands were put to work on the mangle machines. We start work at 8 o'clock; have three-quarters of an hour for lunch and are through the day's work by 4:30 or 5 o'clock. When the "mangle" girls went out some of the "coat" girls walked out with them in sympathy. Today we have a half dozen of the sympathizers back at their regular posts. They have no grivance but went out on the impulse of the moment; as a result of the excitement created by the agistator. Other girls are being employed right along—as you can see"—this statement was more than substantiated by the steady appearance of work-NEW GIRLS APPEARING. the steady appearance of work-

GIRLS WELL TREATED. "I want you to go through this plant of ours and see for yourself how we treat the girls employed here," continued Manager Pollock as he led his listener through the various departments. "You will notice the laundry is kept cool and well ventilated; here is a hat room where the girls keep their clothes; the wash rooms are kept just as clean as I would have my own horse kept these rooms are kept just as clean as I would have my own home kept; there is plenty of light; a janitor is employed constantly; in short, I defy any laundry, anywhere to show better, cleaner, brighter working rooms than we have here. The girls are respected and we employe none but respectable girls. As you can see there are women employed here pretty well along in age. If the work was hard or the treatment shoddy they wouldn't and have heard something about the local labor organizations taking a hand. All we know is that we will continue to mind our own business, hiring good girls and paying them whatever they are worth. We are only too anxious to promote a girl when she shows ability—we need skilled help and pay ty-we need skilled help and pay

BIG EXHIBIT OF Its History, Will Make Feature Of New Industry.

UTAH IS JUST AWAKENING.

Although Strongly Agricultural the State Will Develop Rapidly Through Scientific Cultivation of Lands.

The importance to Utah and the west of the development of arid farming is beginning to be realized by a great number of people. The heretofore wast stretches-waste places only because no cooling stream was nearare now utilized with splendid results. Large companies have been formed; huge engines and plows purchased, and thousands of acres of dry desert now bring forth abundantly of the good and substantial products of the soil, Some very excellent crops are being provery excellent crops are being produced in this way.

Realizing the importance of the comparatively new industry to Utah, the directors of the Utah State fair have concluded to make a special feature of the arid farm exhibit. A prominent space has been assigned and an exhibit calculated to impress one with the fact that irrigation in Utah is not allogether necessary to success, will be made.

The average person reads of the wonplays will attract widespread interest. An arid farm exhibit will be but one of innumerable attractions, which are this year on a scale larger and more complete than on former state fair sident J. G. McDonald, Secretary President J. G. McDonald, Secretary H. S. Ensign and the corps of direc-tors have been untiring in their ef-forts to make the coming fair the greatest ever held in the western states. The organization is finely organized, and energy has been expended in the interest of the coming great fair, the dates of which are Sept. 30 to Oct. 5.

The Jamestown exposition at Norfolk. Va., in its completeness, is, indeed, a handsome spectacle. Located, as it is, overlooking Hampton Roads, a short distance from Norfolk and Portsmouth, near Oid Point Comfort, Hampton said Newport News, in a region full of historic interest and places; in a state which has always been a battleground; emphasizes the wisdom of its projectors, who, knowing the patriotic fervor of the great American people, also knew that they would generously patronize this most unique of expositions. This is the first great exposition to be held at the seaside, in a beautiful country, and within the center of a populous civilization. The potency of the combination is obvious. Delegate, soldier, sallor, diplomat, and civilian meet there to commemorate the three hundredth anniversary of the nation's birth.

The Erie railroad offers to the exposition visitor an excellent train service with close connections at Marion, O., Peoria, O., Mansfield, O., Youngstown, O., Olean, N. Y., Elmira, N. Y., Waverly N. Y., and New York City.

A daily through sleeping car line is operated from Chicago on Erie train No. 8, leaving at 9:30 p. m., to Marlon, O., via Hocking Valley to Columbus, thence Norfolk and Western train, leaving Columbus 8:00 a. m., arriving Norfolk 8:30 following morning.

The Erie equipment is comprised of comfortable, high back seat day coaches, the best Pullman drawing room sleeping cars, and Erie dining and cafe cars operated on the European plan; you simply pay for what you order.

Tickets can be purchased going one-way via New York, returning direct, or reading going and returning via New York and rail or steamer.
